

Link Legal Search Group Certified As a Minority Owned Business by State Of Texas

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 2, 2009

Dallas, TX - Link Legal Search Group has received certification from the State of Texas Comptroller's office as a Historically Underutilized Business (HUB). A HUB is an entity with its principal place of business in Texas, and is at least 51% owned by an Asian Pacific American, Black American, Hispanic American, Native American and/or American woman who reside in Texas and have a proportionate interest and demonstrate active participation in the control, operations and management of the entity's affairs.

"We are very pleased to have received this acknowledgement from the State of Texas," said Rahul D. Yodh, Principal at Link Legal Search Group. "We are eager to expand our client base to include additional law firms, corporations and other organizations which value vendor diversity. We believe our HUB certification helps position us for growth and networking in this area."

Link Legal Search Group works with law firms and in-house legal departments assisting them to procure the best legal talent in the marketplace and also works with clients on their organizational consulting needs.

For more information about Link Legal Search Group, please visit www.linklegalsearch.com